

Jean Utter Chosen "Charity" Chairman

Weekend To Be Packed Full; Glee Club, Musical, Faunce

Jean Utter, 1949, was asked yesterday morning, by Student Council to serve as head of the 1948 Charity Ball, and at 4 p.m. was hard at work on plans to make this year's ball "not just another dance, but a whole bang-up weekend."

"It looks really good," she said. "There'll be something for all the college... almost like a prom weekend!"

Charity Ball itself will be held Saturday, December 4, she said, but the festivities will actually commence Friday night, with the SCADS musical. Saturday, before the dance, the Smith and Williams College Glee Clubs will give a joint concert in John M. Greene Hall. On top of this, the opening of Faunce Hall is tentatively scheduled for Charity Ball weekend.

Jean was a member of House of Representatives in her sophomore year, served as Smith ski manager, and has been active in Glee Club.

"Civilization At Crossroads" Verdict Of Forum Delegate

(as told to Constance Ritchie by Nancy Wolfner, 1950)

"We are on the verge of a crucial point of civilization." This was realized and spoken of by the speakers discussing two topics of the Herald Tribune Forum — "The Land" and "Human Resources in Education." They presented a picture of the country which was particularly interesting and informative, for it revealed problems we didn't know existed concerning our natural resources and problems we knew existed, but did not know how to remedy, concerning our human resources. "Our Imperiled Resources" are in desperate need of conservation and rehabilitation, conservation in relation to natural resources, rehabilitation and stimulation in relation to our human resources.

WCSR IS READY TO GO; TUNE IN 600 TUESDAY

The sixty-four dollar question being asked on campus these days seems to be the whereabouts and whenabouts of WCSR. To all Smith students supporting Blanket Tax, we herewith submit the facts behind the scene that kept radio from broadcasting before October 26. The odd truth remained that at 10 Prospect Street, our broadcasting studio, the paint required a certain period of time to dry. Before the paint was applied, the walls had to be built; and before the equipment was installed, floors had to be laid.

To let you in on some of our technical difficulties—we've had orders in for steel, wire (high voltage), switches (special for Smith) and grey aluminum, to blend with the decorations, since last July. As it is, some of the equipment that we'll be using for the first few broadcasts will be of a temporary nature. For example, instead of a switch which automatically puts the program back into the control room, or out onto the lines—to your radios, as the case may be, we'll be using a direct Public Address system in the studio, and unless more switches arrive, our engineers will be doing some of the automatic work by hand.

However, now everything is ready for the grand opening Tuesday night—the paint will be dry and the walls will be perpendicular to the floor by October 26.

SMITH CASTS VOTES AHEAD OF NATION

Election Day for Smith College is Monday, November 1, when students may vote for their favorite candidate in Seelye Basement from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m. This poll is sponsored by Political Committee, and students who wish to help the committee tabulate should call Cecilia Sahlman, 1950, Gillett House. SCAN will print the election results the following day.

"Regardless of whether or not students have party preference, it is excellent experience to work with the parties in Northampton," stated Anne Wallace, 1949, head of Political Committee.

The Republicans need students to help with filing and other clerical work, especially typing, any time from 10 to 1 and 2 to 5 p.m. Susanne Davis, 1949, 91 Elm Street, urges that those interested call her.

"The Democrats are in the fighting, and if anyone wants to join the ranks they should call me," said Jean Mollison 1949, Gardiner House. In addition to helping with the big rally Thursday, October 28, at the Northampton High School, students are needed to address postcards and do phoning, and are especially needed this Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. to distribute literature.

The Progressive Party wants students Friday evenings and Sunday mornings to canvass.
